

Human Rights Policy ARC Building Products

ARC Building Products is committed to the highest standards of business and ethical behaviour including compliance with all applicable laws and regulations, as well as company policies, practices and procedures. ARC respect internationally recognised Human Rights as established in the Universal Declaration on Human Rights and the International Labour Organisation's Core Conventions.

In line with the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights, ARC recognises the corporate responsibility to respect these principles and commit to 'know and show' this through on-going human rights due diligence. Furthermore, our efforts include ongoing robust engagement with our business and major supply chain partners to mitigate potential human rights impacts beyond our direct control. Our support of internationally recognised Human Rights is consistent with our dedication to enriching our workplace, partnering with our supply chain, preserving the environment and supporting the communities where we operate.

Policy Objectives

The objective of ARC Building Products documented policies is to provide an overview of expectations for employees and business partners.

In addition, the Human Rights policy exists to:

- Inform employees, business partners and customers of ARC's commitment to human rights.
- Establish ARC's commitment to 'know and show' its respect for human rights through on-going human rights due diligence.
- Maintain ARC's high ethical standards.
- Contribute to the realisation of human rights globally.

Policy Scope

ARC's Human Rights Policy applies to all ARC employees, anyone doing business for or with ARC Building Products and others acting on ARC's behalf. This applies to all locations where ARC conducts business and to all company-sponsored events.

Definitions

Human rights are basic rights inherent to all human beings, regardless of nationality, place of residence, sex, sexual orientation, national or ethnic origin, colour, religion, language, or any other status.

Guidelines

ARC Building Products conducts its business in a manner that respects the rights and dignity of all people, complying with all applicable laws and regulations. Our policies reflect our commitment to respecting the protection of internationally recognised Human Rights.

- All employment with ARC is voluntary. We do not use child or forced labour in any of our operations or facilities. We do not tolerate any form of unacceptable treatment of workers, including but not limited to the exploitation of children, physical punishment or abuse, or involuntary servitude. We fully respect all applicable laws establishing a minimum age for employment, in order to support the effective abolition of child labour worldwide.

- ARC abides by all laws and regulations regarding pay practices and the classification of employment according to job level and status.
- We respect our employees' right to choose to join or not join a trade union, or to have recognised employee representation in accordance with local law.
- Diversity is embraced at ARC Building Products. We recognise that a diverse mix of backgrounds, skills and experiences drives new ideas, products, and services and provides us with a sustained competitive advantage.
- We believe everyone should be treated with respect regardless of their background. We are committed to the elimination of discrimination based on gender, race, class, economic status, ethnic background, sexual orientation, age, political beliefs, veteran status, marital status or any other protected class.
- The Supply Chain includes the requirement for all suppliers, vendors, contractors, consultants and agents to adhere to ARC's Labour standards and Code of Conduct policies.

In addition to this, ARC Building Products is committed to the following principles:

- ARC respects all human rights.
- ARC commits to conducting on-going human rights due diligence to assess and mitigate potential human rights infringements.
- ARC expects those with whom it does business to respect all human rights.

Compliance

Employees and suppliers are expected to comply with this and all applicable ARC policies. Violation of this policy or the refusal to cooperate will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination and referral to the appropriate authorities, where we have sound reason to believe that our partner organisations infringe Human Rights we reserve the right to cease those relationships as warranted. Specific to this policy, employees and suppliers are expected to:

- Never infringe on human rights.
- Be alert to any evidence of human rights infringements in our direct operations or in the operations of our business partners and report any situation in which a human rights infringement is suspected.

Responsibility

Our policy will be monitored and reviewed annually.
